About the Institute

The Hunt Institute for Botanical Documentation, a research division of Carnegie Mellon University, specializes in the history of botany and all aspects of plant science and serves the international scientific community through research and documentation. To this end, the Institute acquires and maintains authoritative collections of books, plant images, manuscripts, portraits and data files, and provides publications and other modes of information service. The Institute meets the reference needs of botanists, biologists, historians, conservationists, librarians, bibliographers and the public at large, especially those concerned with any aspect of the North American flora.

Hunt Institute was dedicated in 1961 as the Rachel McMasters Miller Hunt Botanical Library, an international center for bibliographical research and service in the interests of botany and horticulture, as well as a center for the study of all aspects of the history of the plant sciences. By 1971 the Library's activities had so diversified that the name was changed to Hunt Institute for Botanical Documentation. Growth in collections and research projects led to the establishment of four programmatic departments: Archives, Art, Bibliography and the Library.

Norroy King of Arms, F. S. A.

This Work will be found to comprise the History of the Country recorded in the Memoirs of the most Illustrious English Nobility and Great Officers of State by whom the Business of the Nation has been advanced during its most Splendid and momentous Periods. In this Brilliant assemblage of Persons of Genius and Nobility, whose Portraits and Memoirs form subjects of Illustration, will be found the Characters of greatest Celebrity, who have figured on the Page of History from the earliest Period to which authentic Portraits can be traced, including all the eminent Personages by whom the romantic and splendid Court of Elizabeth was so conspicuously adorned, or who were distinguished in the heroic, but disastrous Period of the Great Rebellion.

The Portraits are engraved in the finest Style from original Pictures, by HOLBEIN, RUBENS, VANDYKE, LELY, KNELLER, and other great Masters, preserved in the Galleries of the Nobility, descendants of the Persons represented, or in the public Collections of the Country.

"We have perused the Biographies with as much interest as we have looked at the Plates with admiration; and we know not when we have experienced a stronger influence than their combination has exercised over our minds."—Literary Gazette.

"This is a judicious and beautiful Work, whether we refer to the execution and authentic character of the engraved Portraits, or the literary merits of the Biographical and Historical Memoirs. The Book will be esteemed, not as one of Pictures only, but of Biography and History, and will enter in no obscure character, into the general stock of our National Literature."—La Belle Assemblee.
