About the Institute

The Hunt Institute for Botanical Documentation, a research division of Carnegie Mellon University, specializes in the history of botany and all aspects of plant science and serves the international scientific community through research and documentation. To this end, the Institute acquires and maintains authoritative collections of books, plant images, manuscripts, portraits and data files, and provides publications and other modes of information service. The Institute meets the reference needs of botanists, biologists, historians, conservationists, librarians, bibliographers and the public at large, especially those concerned with any aspect of the North American flora.

Hunt Institute was dedicated in 1961 as the Rachel McMasters Miller Hunt Botanical Library, an international center for bibliographical research and service in the interests of botany and horticulture, as well as a center for the study of all aspects of the history of the plant sciences. By 1971 the Library's activities had so diversified that the name was changed to Hunt Institute for Botanical Documentation. Growth in collections and research projects led to the establishment of four programmatic departments: Archives, Art, Bibliography and the Library.

LODGE'S PORTRAITS & MEMOIRS

OF THE

Most Illustrious Personages of British History.

To commence publishing, Monthly, with the Magazines, Jan. 1. 1829,

No. I. of the Third Edition, with an entirely New Set of Plates.

PORTRAITS and MEMOIRS of the most ILLUSTRIOUS PERSONAGES of BRITISH HISTORY. By EDMUND LODGE, Esq. Norroy King of Arms, F. S. A.

This Collection of Illustrious English Portraits and Biography, will comprise the History of the Country, in Memoirs of the most Illustrious English Nobility and Great Officers of State from the earliest introduction of Portrait Painting to the present time. The subjects are selected from the highest authorities in the land, the original Pictures being preserved in the Galleries of the Nobility, descendants of the distinguished Persons represented, or in the Public Collections, and are painted by HOLBEIN, RUBENS, VANDYKE, LELY, KNELLER, REYNOLDS, and other great Masters.

SIR WALTER SCOTT has observed, in writing of this Work, "It is impossible for me to conceive a Work which ought to be more interesting to the public, than that which exhibits before our eyes ~~the~~ others as they lived," accompanied with such memorials of their lives and Characters as enable us to compare their persons and countenances with their sentiments and actions. This valuable and extended Series of the Portraits of the Illustrious Dead affords to every private gentleman, at a moderate expence, the interest attached to a large Gallery of British Portraits on a plan more extensive than any collection which exists, and at the same time the essence of a curious library of historical, biographical, and antiquarian Works."—Extract of a Letter from Sir Walter Scott, printed in the Prospectus.

The Quarterly Review of October, thus criticises Mr. Lodge's Work.

"Largely as we have been tempted to speak of the graphic part of these volumes, we do not hesitate to say, that were the engravings absent, they would form a most valuable addition to the English Library. This strong language we use deliberately.

In regard to the illustrious characters of our political history, through its two most picturesque and eventful centuries, Mr. Lodge has furnished us with epitomes, which, were the authorities regularly quoted at the bottom of the page, would deserve to be put into the hands of every young person, beginning his course of English historical reading, to guide him as to the course of his inquiries; and in which the most ripe and experienced reader will find delight, as serving to refresh memory by a systematic and arranged exhibition of the common materials of thought, and not less as containing the reflections of a mind equally polished, sagacious, candid, long exerted on materials."

PLATE PUBLICATION.—A number will be regularly published every Month, containing three half Portraits, with their corresponding Memoirs, in imperial 8vo. and delineated upon India Paper, Magazines and Reviews, price 7s. 6d.; or with Proof Impressions of the plates The First Number only 4to. size, 15s.

Duke of Bedford's containing the Portraits and Memoirs of SIR PHILIP SIDNEY, from the Castle; and ARCHBISHOP QUEEN ANNE BULLEYN, from the Earl of Warwick's, at Warwick Castle; and persons of the name of HAMMER, from the British Museum, will be published on the 1st of January; and persons desiring to subscribe for the earliest impressions, are requested to forward their names either to the Publishers, or to their respective Booksellers, in any part of the Kingdom, but with directions to send them to the London Publishers forthwith, because the best Impressions will be appropriated to the first Subscribers; and unless Orders are registered in the Subscription book at the Publishers, the earliest impressions cannot be ensured.
