Statement on harmful and offensive content

The Hunt Institute Archives contains hundreds of thousands of pages of historical content, writing and images, created by thousands of individuals connected to the botanical sciences. Due to the wide range of time and social context in which these materials were created, some of the collections contain material that reflect outdated, biased, offensive and possibly violent views, opinions and actions. The Hunt Institute for Botanical Documentation does not endorse the views expressed in these materials, which are inconsistent with our dedication to creating an inclusive, accessible and anti-discriminatory research environment. Archival records are historical documents, and the Hunt Institute keeps such records unaltered to maintain their integrity and to foster accountability for the actions and views of the collections' creators.

Many of the historical collections in the Hunt Institute Archives contain personal correspondence, notes, recollections and opinions, which may contain language, ideas or stereotypes that are offensive or harmful to others. These collections are maintained as records of the individuals involved and do not reflect the views or values of the Hunt Institute for Botanical Documentation or those of Carnegie Mellon University.

About the Institute

The Hunt Institute for Botanical Documentation, a research division of Carnegie Mellon University, specializes in the history of botany and all aspects of plant science and serves the international scientific community through research and documentation. To this end, the Institute acquires and maintains authoritative collections of books, plant images, manuscripts, portraits and data files, and provides publications and other modes of information service. The Institute meets the reference needs of botanists, biologists, historians, conservationists, librarians, bibliographers and the public at large, especially those concerned with any aspect of the North American flora.

Hunt Institute was dedicated in 1961 as the Rachel McMasters Miller Hunt Botanical Library, an international center for bibliographical research and service in the interests of botany and horticulture, as well as a center for the study of all aspects of the history of the plant sciences. By 1971 the Library's activities had so diversified that the name was changed to Hunt Institute for Botanical Documentation. Growth in collections and research projects led to the establishment of four programmatic departments: Archives, Art, Bibliography and the Library.

The Hon. J. A. A. Preus,
Governor of the State of Minnesota,
State Capitol, St. Paul, Minn.

Dear sir: The National Horticultural Society, an altruistic and educational scientific society, was organized under the laws of the State of Minnesota over a year ago and in that time has spread over the entire country. The trustees consider it advisable to establish the headquarters in St. Paul, and since the Society is entirely altruistic and educational in nature, it may be possible that offices may be secured in the Old State Capitol building on the same conditions that the American Legion has secured offices in that building. Later when the general headquarters are removed to Washington, D. C., the Society will still maintain a regional headquarters in St. Paul.

The Secretary is engaged in graduate research work in horticulture at the University of Minnesota during the present year, and the reply may be sent either to Henning, Minn. or to 1480 Raymond Avenue, St. Paul, Minn.

Your kind reply will be much appreciated, and it is hoped that it will be favorable.

Respectfully yours,

Secretary

Dear friend Paul:

It is sometime ago since I received your welcome letter and I should have answered it before, but somehow I haven't been able to do so. I hope you haven't missed my answer yet and please forgive me for being tardy.

I'm still D. K. although it has been very cold and stormy. I'm afraid we will have very late spring.

We have very little snow left here and what there is left is in woods and drifts. I'll be glad to bring up the matter before the Legion to observe "National Garden Week" next month and it would be fitting to plant trees in the Memorial Park. I don't think it would make much difference whether we would plant some hardy native trees in place of some fancy trees that are very doubtful to grow in this locality.

Or what do you think about it Paul?
In my notion a white birch makes a nice appearance, with its white bark and dark green foliage. But before planting we should have some plan that we could follow, and if you can suggest such a plan where we can plant each year and in time it would be completed would be very glad to receive and I could present that to the members of the Post.

I recently received a copy of "The Joernna Bulletin", published in Longbranch, Wash.
and I came across an article, named "A Jiner". The author of it states that he has joined the ~~American~~ American Gladious Society and also American Horticultural Society, and that the latter organization elected him a vice president for certain group of Pacific states.
Also states that you Paul Traub of Henning
Minn is their secretary.

The reason I'm telling you this is because The National Horticultural Society is opposed to American Horticultural Society and it seems to me you would hardly

would associate with American Horticultural Society. Do you know anything about it Paul?

I also received an invitation to ~~write~~ subscribe for "Garden Magazine." Do you think that magazine would be worth while to subscribe?

Well I must make this long letter short and hoping you will excuse my scribbling and answer to your self friend

Dear Sir:

It is a pleasure to advise that your application for membership in The National Geographic Society has been favorably acted upon by the Membership Committee and your name will be placed on the roster as of January 1st, 1923 - the beginning of the new membership year. Delivery of the official bulletin of the organization - The National Geographic Magazine - under your affiliation, will begin with the January, 1923, number, but you will also receive with the compliments of the Society copies of the November and December, 1922, issues.

You will note from the enclosed extract from the By-Laws, telling of duties and privileges of members, that membership is always entered for the calendar year, January to December, and each payment of dues covers that period. The remittance which you sent us with your application has been entered as your 1923 dues and a certificate of membership is enclosed.

I take this opportunity to express the hope that your association in the Society's educational work will be a source of pleasure and benefit.

Yours very truly,

Privileges and Duties of Members of the National Geographic Society

YOUR election to the National Geographic Society, attested in your Certificate of Membership, admits you to the largest scientific and educational organization in the world. The sole objects of The Society are to increase geographic knowledge and to diffuse it in popular form among the people.

The Society has a membership of intelligent, progressive men and women who with their families profit greatly from the delightful and valuable information it diffuses in text and picture.

Instead of an organization supported by a few philanthropically inclined millionaires, it is a matter of pride that its work is supported by the small annual dues of hundreds of thousands of people, eager to take part in such an educational project. It has no political or other entanglements, does not request donations, and is responsible solely to its membership.

The individual annual dues of its members, small sums in themselves but important in the aggregate, finance The Society's activities for the increase of geographic knowledge and its diffusion among the people. Each member, therefore, has an equal share and pride in The Society's remarkable achievements.

To familiarize yourself with The Society's more important accomplishments you are requested to read carefully the resumé published on the inside cover of the Geographic Magazine.

Origin of the Society The National Geographic Society was formed in 1888 by a small group of technical geographers, who, to exchange their carefully compiled and scientifically valuable information, inaugurated a learned journal which was intended for the technician and consequently was unintelligible to laymen.

Do You Love Roses?

"Rose Gardening cultivates the taste, promotes acquaintance with refined people, and is favorable to health. It furnishes moderate outdoor exercise; it calms and quiets the nerves."

The American Rose Society Invites You to Membership

Organized in 1899 "to improve the excellence of the rose, and increase interest in its cultivation," this fellowship of rose fanciers now numbers nearly three thousand. The Society syndicates the information and enthusiasm of all who love the rose and makes it available to all the members, and to others who wish to learn how to grow roses. By bulletins, exhibitions, lectures and an annual Rose book, it interprets all that is helpful and interesting in Rose knowledge.

To Help You Grow Better Roses

Whether your garden be large or small, formal or informal, there is a place in it for roses, and there are roses for that place. Regular beds, the borders of pleasant walks, arched entrances to other garden delights, the magic circle about the sun-dial—all lend themselves splendidly to rose planting. Granted only a sunny, airy location and rich, well-drained soil, success can be readily achieved.

The publications of the American Rose Society and the rose specialists available for consultation by the members assure you success by the most up-to-date rose knowledge obtainable.

Horticulture Meeting June 12 At Heath's

The regular meeting of the Grand Forks chapter of the National Horticultural society will be held on the afternoon of June 12, at the home of Mrs. F. A. Heath, vice-president of the national organization, who resides 2 miles south and 3 miles west of the state university.

This will be the first of a series of outdoor meetings to be held by the local chapter during the summer, it was announced. The meeting will be held between the hours of 2 and 6 p. m. Should rain cause the roads to be bad on that date, it is announced, the meeting will be held on the following Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Heath has more than 600 varieties of flowers and shrubs growing at her farm home and with their present development, it is said, members of the chapter will have an opportune occasion to study many varieties of plants that are seldom grown in this section of the country.

MRS. HEATH SPEAKS AT FARMER PICNIC
AT MOULTON GROVE

"Protection and Beautification of the Home Grounds" was the subject of a talk given yesterday by Mrs. F. A.

Heath of near Grand Forks at a Farmer Community picnic, held at Moulton Grove, near Thimposon. Mrs.
Heath pointed out that every home should be surrounded by trees, planted in a manner to lend beauty as well as protection. She told of her success of raising more than 600 varieties of flowers and shrubs at her home southwest of the state university. She pointed out that with a little care and attention, the home may be greatly beautified in this way.

A. F. Yeager of the agricultural college said that the same mistake is often made in North Dakota that was made by the colonists in the United States, that of trying to plant fruit trees here that are brought from other climates. The only successful fruit trees, he said, are those that are developed here.

Miss M. Beatrice Johnstone, county superintendent of schools, and D. B.
Morris, county agent, also spoke at the picnic.

HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY MEETS

Afternoon Spent in Looking Over Many Flowers at Heath Place

The first outdoor meeting of the Grand Forks chapter of the National Horticultural society, was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. A. Heath, who lives south and west of the state university.

Thirty-eight members of the chapter and friends attended. A business meeting was scheduled during the afternoon, but no time was found for it by the members, who spent the four hours between 2 and 6 p. m., viewing and examining the 600 or more varieties and species of flowers and shrubs that are growing on the Heath place.

Refreshments were served during the afternoon and two new members Mrs. A. G. Leonard and Mrs. Edw. A. Link, both of Grand Forks, were added to the chapter.

Those present from outside of Grand Forks were: Mr. and Mrs. Alex

Strong and E. W. Best of Wauhatcha, E. E. Kidney of Graham, Texas, W. R. Kink of McBee, South Carolina, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Moulton, Thompson, and Mrs. H. C. Myers, Harvey.

Every difficulty slurred over will be a ghost to disturb your purpose later on.

KOLA CRAB

SHOKO CRAB

ZAPTA CRAB

Introduction by Dr. N. E. Hansen

This list offers what is ready from my twenty-eighth year of experiments in originating new fruits at this station. Much more remains to be done. Many more varieties worthy of trial are coming on. To the many friends who have followed the progress of the experiments with such cordial interest and have helped by sending in orders, I extend my hearty thanks. A work of tremendous magnitude and importance is being done with very limited means. The money received from the sale of plants makes possible the fruit-breeding work on a larger scale than would otherwise be possible.

Many of these new varieties are offered only once or twice as there is not enough land for nursery propagation. The available stock is so limited that by early orders are you sure of getting what you want. So please order promptly.

Anoka Apple

First introduced spring 1913 before fruiting as South Dakota No. 2. Now given the name Anoka, a Sioux Indian word meaning "on both sides." It is a seedling of Mercer (Finko) wild crab topgrafted on Duchess. This tree has borne heavily in 1918 and 1919. The fruit is two and one-half inches in diameter, round, luscious type of coloring. Flesh white, good subacid. Season September. I am pleased with the early and heavy bearing of this variety under propagation.

In the spring of 1920 four trees of Anoka apple, one year buds on seedlings of Red Siberian Crab, were sent to the Experiment Station at Fargo North Dakota. Under date of December 2, 1922, Professor A. F. Yeager, Agricultural College, Fargo, North Dakota, reports on these trees as follows: "This spring two of the four trees blossomed, one produced 23 apples, the other 26. Practically all the fruit was set from lateral buds. Upon examination this fall it seems that all four of the Anoka apple trees have a lot of lateral fruit buds showing. The trees are not yet as high as one's head and were scarcely four feet high last spring. They began ripening about the 15th of August. The apples are medium to above medium in size, but somewhat larger than Duchess. They are oblong in character. Our specimens showed very little color. The flavor seemed to be very similar to Duchess. If the variety continues to flourish as it has so far it should be a big addition to our fruit list."

Price of trees, one year buds on Yellow Siberian crab stock, each $1.00.

Taming The American Wild Crab Apple

The wild crab apple was the only apple known to the Indians before the white man brought over the cultivated apple which is a native of the temperate regions of Europe and Asia. The Indians cached or buried the fruit outdoors in the earth over winter. This serves to tame down the stringiness.

My chief hope in growing many thousands of apple and crab apple seedlings has been to tame the wild American crab apple enough so that the fruit would be desirable at least for culinary use. In the seedling plantations of this station the wild crab apple from Elk River, some forty miles northwest of Minneapolis, Minnesota, has proved hardy, productive and practically immune to blight. The abundant fragrant pink and white blossoms in the spring make the trees of great value for lawns and park planting, while the fruit is too sour and astringent to tempt anyone. However, the fruit will keep at least a year and is useful to impart a quince-like flavor to common apple sauce. In fact, some people consider wild American apples a fair substitute for quinces in making preserves.

While the following four varieties are by no means perfect, they are worthy of attention. They are worthy of planting purely for ornamental purposes. In the language of the orator we stand at the threshold of a new era. I have my hand over the broncho's neck but he is not yet fully tamed. Soon I trust he will be eating right out of my hand. I believe these crab apples will prove hardy far north into Manitoba and will keep well into spring in an ordinary cellar. In the standard fruit lists for the northern limits of apple culture in the prairie Northwest we must admit we have only summer and fall varieties, but no real winter apples that will keep into spring in an ordinary cellar. I believe that the future ideal winter apple will result from a judicious combination of suit characters.

In the case the shriveled skin should be disregarded, as the apples were kept too long in a warm room before photographing.

Kola Crab

Offered for the first time spring 1922. A hybrid of the wild native crab apple from Elk River, Minnesota, with pollen of Duchess of Oldenburg apple. The fruit is flat, green, full two inches in diameter on the original tree fruiting in greatly crowded nursery rows of seedlings. The skin is only as in the wild crab. The fruit cooks up into an acceptable sauce. Trees have strong forks and appear immune to blight and winter killing. Kola is the Sioux Indian name for "friend." The heaviest specimen of Kola in 1917 weighed three ounces; the largest was two and one-half inches in diameter. This was the first year of fruiting.

Price of trees, one year buds on seedlings of Yellow Siberian Crab, each 75 cents.

Tipi Crab

Offered for the first time spring 1922. Also a hybrid of the wild crab of Elk River, Minnesota, with pollen of the Duchess of Oldenburg apple and much the same in tree and fruit as Kola. Tipi is the Teton Indian for "tent."

Price of trees, one year old buds on seedlings of Dolgo crab, each 75 cents.

Shoko Crab

Offered for the first time spring 1922. A hybrid of the wild crab of Elk River, Minnesota, with pollen of Alexander apple, one of the largest Russian apples. Fruit nearly two inches in diameter, green, acid, but cooking into an acceptable sauce. The size of the fruit will probably increase, as the original tree is much crowded in nursery rows. Shoko is the Sioux Indian for "seven."

Price of trees, strong one year buds on seedlings of Alberta Crab (a Siberian crab hybrid), each 75 cents.

Zapta Crab

Offered for the first time spring 1922. A hybrid of the wild native crab apple from Elk River, Minnesota, with pollen of the Bismarck apple, a large variety from New Zealand resembling the Alexander. Fruit two and one-eighth inches in diameter, green, acid and astringent, but cooks up well into sauce. The original tree is closely crowded in our seedling nursery so the size of the fruit will probably increase under propagation. Zapta is the Sioux Indian for "five."

Price of trees, strong one year buds on Prunus lacustris stock, each 75 cents.

Goldo Apple

Offered for the first time in spring of 1922. A seedling of Grimes Golden top grafted on Duchess of Oldenburg apple. The name is condensed from these two varieties. Goldo is distinguished by the smooth, hardy, vigorous growth of the original tree. The fruit is much like Grimes Golden in general appearance and excellent flavor. If the trees prove hardy under propagation it will be a decided acquisition as a variety combining the hardness of Duchess with the size and high quality of Grimes Golden.

Price, one year buds on Pyrus Ringo Crab seedling stock, each $1.00.

Sasha Apple

Offered for the first time spring 1919. A seedling of the Hibernal pollinated with Gravenstein pollen. The fruit is a fine yellow oblate and excellent quality sweet apple of full commercial size; the tree is of strong, stocky growth, has brightened a little but not more than some of the standard varieties. The pedigree indicates it should combine hardness and quality. Sasha is a Russian name's name.

Trees, one year buds on seedlings of Amur Crab, each 50 cents.

Chance Apple

Offered for the first time spring 1919. The original tree bore a good crop again in 1919. One of our chance seedlings from mixed seed of northern grown apples. Original tree productive. Fruit oblate, regular, of full commercial size, red-striped all over with attractive blue bloom. Flesh white, pleasant subacid. Season probably January or later. I hope this will help on the late-keeping apple problem. The fruit is certainly of attractive appearance.

Trees: One year buds on Yellow Siberian seedling crab stock, each 50 cents.

Olga Crab

Offered for the first time spring 1919. Pedigree: Female parent, Duchess of Oldenburg apple. Male parent, Pyrus baccata cerasifera, which is much like the old Cherry crab. This combines the Russian apple with the Siberian crab. Fruit is regular, oblate, fully 1 1/2 inches in diameter on the original seedling tree. Color solid bright cherry red all over with blue bloom; dots distinct, white, many large; basin quite shallow, smooth; cavity wide, obtuse with considerable raised. Color mostly deciduous. Flesh is yellowish white, crisp, juicy, acid, of good quality. Flesh is yellow with red core outline. Very good to eat raw as it mellows. The fruit cooks up very quickly, as easily as the Duchess apple itself, and the sauce is of an attractive deep salmon red. Under propagation the trees may slightly increase in size of fruit. The tree is a vigorous stocky grower with strong forks and extremely productive.

Trees, one year buds on seedlings of Red Siberian and Dolgo crab, each 75 cents.

Dolgo Crab: A New Red-Jellied Siberian Crab

At the annual exhibits of this Department at the South Dakota State Fair many have asked about the remarkably long, conical, intensely bright red crabs we used in making letters. This is one I brought over from my second trip to Russia, in 1887. A vigorous productive tree and so far free from blight. Fruit full of juice, jells easily, makes a rich ruby red jelly of beautiful color and excellent flavor.

The one year old trees in nursery are of strong growth with wide spreading forks and strongly shouldered limbs, indicating that they will not split down easily.

Trees, one year buds on seedlings of Alexis, a Siberian crab apple, each 75 cents.

WHY PAY AN AGENCY A BIG COMMISSION?

NATIONAL EDUCATIONAL SERVICE

Denver, Colorado
1266 Grant Street.

March 23, 1923.

Dear Friend:

I know that you want the best position for next year which you are qualified to fill, and I also know that you do not want to pay an agency a big commission to get it.

The National Educational Service can secure this position for you, at a salary which will probably be considerably more than you are now receiving, and you will not have to pay an agency a big commission. All I ask is a chance to prove it at our expense. If we do not secure such a position for you, you need not pay us anything. If we do secure it for you, you pay us $10.00. That's fair, isn't it?

A year ago we organized the Western Educational Service, which has now grown into the National Educational Service. Since then over 4,000 teachers and executives enrolled with us, and we placed all of them except 113. We are proud of this record--over 97% perfect service during our first year.

We are able to place such a large proportion of our candidates, because school boards all over the country are tired of paying out several million dollars a year to teachers' agencies. When school boards tax their districts liberally to get good teachers, they want those teachers to get the money they pay them. If they save you fifty to a hundred dollars or more commission, it is the same as if they paid you that much more salary. That is why they are calling on us in greater numbers every day.

We hereby renew our offer of last year, to pay $5,000.00 cash to the first person who can show any 5 teachers' agencies in the United States who, combined, will, from March 1, 1923, to Sept. 1, 1923, receive notice of as many vacancies as we will receive during the same period of time.

This year we are going to give even better than 97% perfect service. We now operate over the entire country, and we have a state manager in almost every state in the Union. We maintain special departments for university, college and normal school professors, for superintendents, high school principals, grade principals, high school teachers, grade teachers, rural teachers, and a special department for those who wish to locate in the same town with a friend.

Our search for vacancies and for teachers to fill them is nationwide. We are now sending out over a thousand letters a day to superintendents and school boards all over the country, and as a result we are getting over a hundred good vacancies every day. Among this number there are, undoubtedly, very many which would be a decided promotion for you.

Two months ago we signed a contract for the construction of a $40,000.00 radio broadcasting station, which is expected to be on the air in a very short time. This will be one of the most powerful radio stations in the country, and it will advertise the National Educational Service in almost every city and hamlet in the United States. We can do things on a big scale like this, because we have over a hundred thousand dollars at our command.

We have hundreds of letters in our files from satisfied teachers, superintendents and school boards, telling us that we are offering the cleanest and fairest proposition that has ever come to their attention. For instance: Z. M. Johns, 2424 Hartman Ave., Omaha, Neb., writes: "I have signed up as Principal after applying from the first list of vacancies you sent me. I never heard of a cleaner proposition than yours. Thank you very much for your kind assistance."

Over 450 of the teachers who enrolled with us last year have already enrolled with us again for the coming year.

How about YOU? You, too, can now secure the best position you are qualified to fill, and you do not have to pay an agency a big commission to get it.

Perhaps you have already joined an agency. Many of the best teachers join several. Let US work for you too; if you do not accept your position through us, it wont cost you anything. If you do accept one of our positions, you will save from fifty to a hundred dollars or more on the commission. We offer you enrollment as follows:

For a fee of $10.00 we will assist you in every way possible until you secure a satisfactory position. All we ask is that you do your share by making a prompt, careful application for each of the vacancies of which we will notify you in accordance with the information furnished on your enrollment blank.

If you would like to enroll now, but do not want us to write to your references yet, we will not do so until you request it. In that event we can, of course, not recommend you until we get your testimonials. We will, however, send you notices of vacancies just as we would do otherwise.

Don't you think you owe it to yourself to give us a trial? We are absolutely confident that we can place you in just the position you want, with a raise in salary of from one to several hundred dollars. And we ask you to pay us only ten dollars to give you this service.

All of our candidates deposit the ten dollars with us in advance as a sign that they mean business. We can't afford to spend our time and money on the thousands of more or less indifferent teachers who would otherwise swamp us, and thereby lessen your chances of getting the position you want. Not only that, but our profit is so small that we can't afford to lose any of it after we have earned it. IF YOU DO NOT SECURE A SATISFACTORY POSITION THROUGH US BEFORE SEPT. 1, 1923, WE WILL IMMEDIATELY RE-FUND YOUR $10.00, WITH 6% INTEREST.

If you want references in regard to our financial and moral integrity, we refer you to any bank in Denver, or to the Gila Valley Bank and Trust Company, Clifton, Ariz., or to the Colorado State Deputy Commissioner of Labor, State Capitol, Denver, with whom we are bonded for $1,000.00, or to the City Manager of Safety and Excise, City Hall, Denver, with whom we are also bonded for an additional $1,000.00.

The state of Colorado and the City of Denver each require the deposit of a thousand dollar bond before a teachers' employment agency is allowed to operate from here, and these bonds protect you. If we do not carry out each and every one of our agreements, these government officials will refund your money to you from this $2,000.00 bond money.

You are in line for a better position, and our big organization can secure it for you. It will take you only a few minutes to fill out our enrollment blank, but it will probably be the most important thing you can do for yourself today. After you have done this little thing for yourself, you will have all day to do things for others. DO IT NOW, and we will be working for you by return mail.

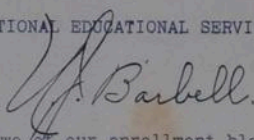

If this is impossible, please hand our letter to one of your fellow teachers, preferably to a grade teacher, who you think will be interested. We would prefer to have you hand it to a grade teacher, because in the past it has been absolutely impossible for us to get in touch with any where near enough grade teachers to fill the grade vacancies we get.

However, RIGHT NOW is the time to enroll, while the entire field is still open for you. All it will cost you is five minutes of your time and a two cent stamp. Your ten dollars will be just as safe with us as it would be in your bank; safer, perhaps, because our financial standing is in all probability fully as good as that of your bank, and it is doubtful whether your bank is bonded to protect you. This ten dollars will either get you a better position, or it will be drawing interest for you.

It's your move. It wont cost you a cent if we do not secure a better position for you than the one you have now. Send your enrollment to our Main Office in Denver. Our other offices collect vacancies, and forward them to the Main Office by wire. If the case is urgent, we forward the wire to you. One big clearing house like this, covering the entire country, is more efficient than a dozen smaller ones.

Very respectfully yours,

NATIONAL EDUCATIONAL SERVICE, By

Note: We are enclosing two of our enrollment blanks in this letter. Please hand one to a friend. You will be instrumental in saving him or her from fifty to a hundred dollars or more, and you will make it possible for your friend to secure just the position he or she is best qualified to fill.

If, after carefully studying your qualifications, we believe we can place you to better advantage in a different department from the ones you underscored, may we send you notice of some such vacancies?

SEND YOUR ENROLLMENT TO OUR DENVER OFFICE, 1266 Grant Street.

May we consider your present position vacant for next year? If so, to whom should application be sent? What is his official position? Address _____ D.

Dear friend Paul:

Received your welcome letter today and it was real pleasure to hear from you again. I'm going to answer it right away, now as I have time and nothing very important to do. In winter time it is not so busy on the farm as other time of the year. We've sure had our share of cold winter weather. We still use our cars although in some places it has drifted some, that is to say the state roads are still passable but other roads are about closed for car driving. I don't think I'd care very much to stay in So. Dakota winter time as there is not any trees to break ~~the~~ force of the wind.

I shall be very much delighted to receive the next number of our magazine.

We have a good start in making our magazine the biggest of its kind, anything that I can do to make it a grand success I shall always be ready to do my bit. I know that we can make it big, I have given much thought in fact in having someone that can devote more time towards increasing the Fellowship. I'm very glad that you suggested in electing Mr. C. Z.
Nelson as President of the National Horticultural Society. You have my approval and sincere wishes that he will be just the man for that position. You can rest assured that I shall always feel grateful for the great honor to be the first President of the National Horticultural Society. To you Paul especially:

We can hold a meeting on Dec 22nd and I'm going to write to Eric Magnusson that I can be there in the afternoon at 1 o'clock on Dec 22, 1922. I regret that you will not be able to be present. I sure would like to see you Paul.

Yes it was too bad about Peter Sævre it was terrible for him to suffer so much before he died.

Well Paul I must close and I wish you a Merry Christmas & Happy New Year.

Please write again

P.S. I shall be very happy to receive your picture Paul.

Dear Miss Paul:

Your welcome letter received, also the magazine and I thank you ever so much for ~~the~~ both. The magazine sure was very interesting and the photos reproduced on it were just fine. I'll sure take good care of the copies of the magazine and file them so I can look over them in the years to come. I'm still S. S. and I hope this finds you the same. We too have our share of this cold northern winter. It has been real cold and stormy for the last few days. There is not summer. Marion Thompson went to Minneapolis to attend the auto show. I wish I could spare the time I'd surely like to have gone to.

Saturday and Sunday they have a big Ski Tournament at Glenwood.

Have you ever been to a one. It must be some sport to slide down that steep course. Well I must hike to day as I have to be up with the birds tomorrow morning. Please write soon when you have time

Dear Sir:

Every rare and beautiful flower in your garden deserves a permanent label.

Part of the pleasure in wandering thru a garden is to know accurately the name of the plant or flower that demands your attention. Imagine, if you will, how neat and lasting would be your plant record if every plant had attached to it a zinc label such as the enclosed sample.

The cost is trifling. Three cents per label covers the cost to you post paid. This includes the copper wire for attaching the label directly to the plant or to a galvanized stake.

Run off a full or partial list of your garden beauties on the reverse side of this letter (preferably typewritten.) You will be delighted with these helpful, ever present records.

Very truly yours,

Hunter Filbert

Dear Sir:

I have the honor of apprising you that you have been nominated for membership in the National Geographic Society by Mr. Hamilton Traub.

The enclosure describes the significant educational service The Society renders and the great personal benefits you gain from membership, which is so esteemed by your friend and by many men and women distinguished in the educational, scientific, and industrial progress of our country.

Among your privileges as a member will be your right to receive without extra charge The Society's unique monthly, the National Geographic Magazine, which stands alone in editorial excellence and sheer physical beauty. If you accept your friend's nomination promptly, in time for action at the coming meeting of the Membership Committee, your membership begins January 1, 1923, and brings you all twelve of the 1923 numbers of The Magazine.

Among coming issues will be the sumptuously illustrated special full-color numbers devoted to bringing the grandeur and beauty of Washington to every member's home, and the remarkable Nature Numbers on Horses of the World, Insect Life, and Fresh-Water Fishes. The unique Tree Number, also in preparation, will give you the cream of illustration and text prepared for private publication as a $10 volume de luxe. In addition, you will receive with The Society's compliments, as long as the supply lasts, the October, 1922, issue with its wall map of modern Africa in colors and its five fascinating articles and wealth of illustration on the Dark Continent.

To avail yourself of this nomination, kindly notify me at your early convenience of your wish to enter The Society. There is no initiation fee. The dues of $3.00, which should accompany acceptance, discharge all your financial obligation as an annual member and bring you The Magazine through 1923.

Please give your name exactly as you wish it to appear upon the membership certificate which will be sent you when your nomination is confirmed. May I suggest a prompt acceptance so that I can present your name to the Membership Committee at its next meeting?

Sincerely yours,

Secretary.

Mr. Hamilton Traub, Secretary

Gentlemen:

We have pleasure in submitting estimate for manufacturing your proposed YEAR BOOK in response to your recent request, and find it necessary to give you prices in itemized form as you do not furnish us with sufficiently specific specifications to enable us to figure out with any degree of accuracy the probable cost per copy of making your book.

On the basis of the information you gave us we submit the following figures as probable cost of manufacture:

Book to trim 5-3/8 x 7-7/8", type size of page 4 x 6 1/2", straight composition, from good typewritten copy, in 10 pt. for text.

Composition of 10 pt. text page	- - - - -	1.36 per page
" " front matter	- - - - -	2.50 " "
" " advertisements - full pages	- - - - -	7.00
half pages	- - - - -	4.00
quarter pages	- - - - -	2.50
Electrotype plates	- - - - -	.85 per page
Alterations in proof after type is set	- - - - -	-2.00 per hour

We figure to furnish 70 lb. English Finish stock, suitable to print such illustrations as ordinarily appear in advertisements.

Presswork:

Paper and presswork on 10,000 copies	- - - - -	11 1/2 cents per copy
" " " 25,000 "	- - - - -	10 3/4 " " "
" " " 50,000 "	- - - - -	10 1/2 " " "
" " " 100,000 "	- - - - -	10 1/4 " " "

This is based upon a book of 256 pages.

If you would like to have us figure out as closely as possible the probable cost of the book we would be glad to do so if you will tell us exactly how many pages of text to figure on, how many full page advertisements, how many half page and how many quarter page.

See sheet #2

Upon acceptance, your order will be entered subject to the trade customs as set forth on the back hereof, which shall be binding upon both parties. This estimate is for immediate acceptance, based on present cost of production and your ability to furnish promptly all materials you are to supply.

Very truly yours,

J. J. LITTLE & IVES CO.

Hamilton Traub,
Henning, Minnesota.

My good friend Traub,

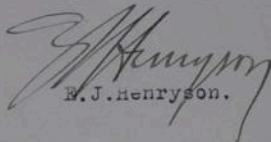

Tho it bore no marks of identification, and was post marked -Webster, South Dakota, I nevertheless take it that it was my old friend Traub who sent me a copy of the "National Horticultural Magazine" for January. In case it was you, and I am sure it was, I want to thank you for remembering your old time Savenay friend.

Particularly am I interested since writing and editorial work is my line, and when I see one of my friends taking to the pen, I feel more than ever that we are kindred spirits.

In addition to being the Editor of the Magazine, I notice that you are also the Secretary of the organization. With a keen interest, you may be sure, I shall watch your progress, and the progress of your organization.

Let me repeat a request of a former letter, and urge again, that when you are in Minneapolis or St. Paul you will look me up. It would be a pleasure to learn of your "doings" and activities after your departure from Rainy France.

With kindest regards, I am,
Very sincerely,

E. J. Henryson.

THE WORLD AGRICULTURE SOCIETY

A Fellowship for All Interested in Agriculture and Rural Affairs

What is World Agriculture?

By "world agriculture" we mean the aggregate effort requisite to supply the world's need for food and other products of the soil. This includes financing, growing and marketing; transportation, storage and distribution; preparation, preservation and use. With one or more of these functions everyone is concerned. Upon the harmonious performance of them all depends the well-being of the individual and of society as a whole. It is important, therefore, to bring about a universal realization of this inter-responsibility by uniting cultivators of the soil and other workers, manufacturers, bankers, distributors, editors, students, teachers, government representatives and statesmen in a voluntary association for the interchange of facts and experience toward concerted action.

What is the World Agriculture Society?

The World Agriculture Society is a "fellowship" of individuals and organizations who realize the importance of seeking a solution for the world's food problem that shall be just to the producers, distributors and consumers of all nations. It regards such a solution as essential for permanent world peace. Moreover, the Society recognizes that "life is more than meat" and therefore emphasizes educational, social and spiritual interests, believing that technical and economic efficiency must be made tributary to the advancement of the highest life of the individual and of society as a whole.

What are its purposes?

- (1) To gather and disseminate facts concerning rural life, the conservation of the earth's natural resources, and the production, distribution and use of soil-grown commodities in order that these facts obtained from non-political and expert sources may facilitate the application of principles which should control local and international policies in order that individuals and localities may perform a right part and receive a just share in the world's supply.
- (2) To bring about a closer inter-action between city and country dwellers in the exchange of their respective products, both material and spiritual.
- (3) To elicit a greater appreciation of the possibilities of country life for developing the highest types of individual and social character.
- (4) To promote the collaboration of all agencies—governmental and voluntary—concerned in rural welfare as a world interest.
- (5) To conduct a campaign of popular education toward the universal realization of these purposes.

Dear Mr. Traub:-

Your letter of the 10th. ult. is just on hand.

I regret to inform you, that, having been very busy for the past months in business affairs specially in incorporating our company, I have had no time to prepare my article, "Philippine Horticulture" Nevertheless I will try to send it at the earliest practicable date.

I will also do as much publicity as I can for the enlargement of the society here in the Islands.

With this mail, I am writing to Mrs. Heath. Thank you for suggesting that I may correspond with her. Of course I shall always have time to write to you, and to her, and to the rest of our brothers. as well.

I close, and as ever, I am always in sincere wishes for the progress of our societey.

Yours fraternally,

Leon A. Rodriguez
