About the Institute

The Hunt Institute for Botanical Documentation, a research division of Carnegie Mellon University, specializes in the history of botany and all aspects of plant science and serves the international scientific community through research and documentation. To this end, the Institute acquires and maintains authoritative collections of books, plant images, manuscripts, portraits and data files, and provides publications and other modes of information service. The Institute meets the reference needs of botanists, biologists, historians, conservationists, librarians, bibliographers and the public at large, especially those concerned with any aspect of the North American flora.

Hunt Institute was dedicated in 1961 as the Rachel McMasters Miller Hunt Botanical Library, an international center for bibliographical research and service in the interests of botany and horticulture, as well as a center for the study of all aspects of the history of the plant sciences. By 1971 the Library's activities had so diversified that the name was changed to Hunt Institute for Botanical Documentation. Growth in collections and research projects led to the establishment of four programmatic departments: Archives, Art, Bibliography and the Library.

An Herrn Frederik V. Coville

Washington, D.C.

Ich erlaube mir Ihnen mitzutheilen, dass ich in diesen Tagen die Moosen Oldburg's zurücksenden werde.
Da ich mich nicht eingehender mit dem Studium der Lebermoosen be-schäftigt habe, war ich genöthigt die Lebermoosen der Sammlung un-berücksichtigt zu lassen.

Die Sammlung war überhaupt eine ziemlich schlechte und die Exempla-ren in vielen Fällen ohne näherer Bezeichnung des Standortes.

Herr Ule hat mir die Materialien zu der zweiten Centurie der Bryothecae brasiliensis gesandt. Da es die Vertheilung besorgen werde, benutze ich die Gelegenheit Ihnen zu fragen ob Sie vielleicht auch diese zweite te Centurie für dem National Herbarium erwerben wollen. Der Preis ist incl. Porto 6 Dollars.

Mit vorzüglicher Hochachtung

V. F. Brothmann Dr.

kind enough to send me. I should be very fond of continuing the exchange and I hope soon being able to compile a fresh collection for The National Herbarium

Sincerely

Yours

V. F. Brotherus
