About the Institute

The Hunt Institute for Botanical Documentation, a research division of Carnegie Mellon University, specializes in the history of botany and all aspects of plant science and serves the international scientific community through research and documentation. To this end, the Institute acquires and maintains authoritative collections of books, plant images, manuscripts, portraits and data files, and provides publications and other modes of information service. The Institute meets the reference needs of botanists, biologists, historians, conservationists, librarians, bibliographers and the public at large, especially those concerned with any aspect of the North American flora.

Hunt Institute was dedicated in 1961 as the Rachel McMasters Miller Hunt Botanical Library, an international center for bibliographical research and service in the interests of botany and horticulture, as well as a center for the study of all aspects of the history of the plant sciences. By 1971 the Library's activities had so diversified that the name was changed to Hunt Institute for Botanical Documentation. Growth in collections and research projects led to the establishment of four programmatic departments: Archives, Art, Bibliography and the Library.

Monsieur
Monsieur L. G. Merat
Place des S. pères N. 17 bis
Paris

Monsieur,

Je suis en vérité désolé, mais pourtant il ne faut pas que pour un petit bonsoir-
-propre mal entendu de ma part, je vous induise en erreur; c'est pourquoi je vous disais que je suis allé le dimanche 14 de ce mois au château deaignans, et j'ai cherché et recherché la Violotte que j'avais prise pour le V. palustris et malheureuse-
-ment je me suis assuré que ce n'était que du V. canina rebaptisé acousé de la localité marécageuse, vous jugez que mon désappointement a été grand surtout après l'assurance que je vous avais donnée; enfin c'est un petit malheur et je n'en ai point pleuré; quant au hamium bisatum je n'ai rien vu à la place ainsi que le Vicia hirta alba.

Je vous envoie du musci que vous me faites de la petite pivoine, je compte vous trouver tôt ou tard un petit Mercurialis perennis.

Je vous salue bien sincèrement et suis votre

Desservant

J. L. L.
