About the Institute

The Hunt Institute for Botanical Documentation, a research division of Carnegie Mellon University, specializes in the history of botany and all aspects of plant science and serves the international scientific community through research and documentation. To this end, the Institute acquires and maintains authoritative collections of books, plant images, manuscripts, portraits and data files, and provides publications and other modes of information service. The Institute meets the reference needs of botanists, biologists, historians, conservationists, librarians, bibliographers and the public at large, especially those concerned with any aspect of the North American flora.

Hunt Institute was dedicated in 1961 as the Rachel McMasters Miller Hunt Botanical Library, an international center for bibliographical research and service in the interests of botany and horticulture, as well as a center for the study of all aspects of the history of the plant sciences. By 1971 the Library's activities had so diversified that the name was changed to Hunt Institute for Botanical Documentation. Growth in collections and research projects led to the establishment of four programmatic departments: Archives, Art, Bibliography and the Library.

Sir,

I have exchanged Mr. Daniels 110 Bds. of Bot. & L. for Woodcock. You will now of course, supply him regularly. You will receive a few Prospectuses, and No. 123, which you will accept as a Specimen.

I have taken the liberty of sending three copies of an Advt. altho' I am not sure that you have any Newspaper at Harworth. If not perhaps you will be good enough to send them to such papers as you think most generally circulated <sup>in your neighbourhood</sup> - (one to each of three papers) - I add a Sovereign - 5/6 will pay each.

Be pleased to send the extract also which they will insert as such. If my little

Com = sh? involve further expense, I shall of course, pay it. -

I am, Sir
Yours respectfully,
Wm. W. Brown

BOTANICAL WORKS.

NOW PUBLISHING, MONTHLY.

Large, 2s. 6d. Small, 1s. 6d.

THE BOTANIST;

EDITED BY

E. MAUND, F. L. S., assisted by the REV. J. S. HENSLOW, M. A. F. L. S. &c. Regius Professor of Botany in the University of Cambridge.

Containing beautifully executed coloured engravings of the most admired Plants, cultivated in the Greenhouse, Stove, or open Garden. The drawings accurately coloured from nature, of the full size of the flowers. Generic and specific distinctions are accompanied by popular information on the History, Properties, Habits, Culture, and Geographical distribution of the subjects figured. Portions of an easy Guide to Botany, and also a Botanical Dictionary, written by Professor Henslow, illustrated by numerous cuts, are given in each number.

The Literary Periodicals, have unanimously bestowed the highest praise on THE BOTANIST. A few concise Extracts may be given as an example.

MONTHLY REPOSITORY, says, "such a work was much wanted. The whole style and getting up of it is excellent."

SPECTATOR: "It is evidently one of the cheapest, as it promises to be one of the most useful works."

GARDENER'S MAGAZINE: "The plates are remarkably well executed, and the whole work has the neat appearance of Mr. Maund's Botanic Garden."

MEDICAL GAZETTE: "We do not know any work better calculated to inspire a love for botany, and qualify it when awakened."

LITERARY GAZETTE: "The plan is excellent, and the illustrations finely executed."

CONVERSATIONAL MAGAZINE: "The figures of ornamental plants are beautifully coloured, and the descriptions happily combine scientific, popular, and moral instruction."

METROPOLITAN MAGAZINE: "The engraving and the colouring of the flowers are really excellent specimens of the art."

PHILOSOPHICAL MAGAZINE: "An explanation of every Botanical term is given. This advantage belongs to no previous work. The selection and treatment of the subjects figured reflect great credit upon the Conductor and his assistants."

EVANGELICAL MAGAZINE: "This promises to be the best and cheapest work on practical Botany. The plates are executed in the first style of accuracy and beauty."

Volume 1, containing fifty plates, cloth boards, Large 2s. Small 2s., or half-bound in green Turkey Maroon, Large 2s. Small 2s.
