

ARTIST BIOGRAPHICAL RECORD

Artist name:

Bates, Mary

City and country of birth:

Thrussington, England

Residence:

Scottish

Education:

B.Sc. Hons. Zoology, 1967, University of Leeds

Career:

Moth pheromone work with Commonwealth Scientific and Industrial Research Organization's Division of Entomology, Canberra, and electrophysiology studies at the Australian National University, Canberra, 1967 – 1971

Freelance botanical illustration, Royal Botanic Gardens, Edinburgh, 1982 –

Artwork medium:

Watercolor

Pen and ink

Pencil

Group Exhibition(s):

- 1979, Broughton Gallery, Broughton Place, Peeblesshire.
- 1987, Broughton
- 1987, Inverleith House, Edinburgh

Bibliography:

- Agent, G. C. G. and P. J. B. Woods. "Agapetes (Ericaceae) in cultivation," The plantsman. September 1986.
- Bates and P. J. B. Woods. "A confusion of orchids," The plantsman. September 1984.
- Grierson, A. J. and D. G. Long. Flora of Bhutan Vol. 1 Part 2. Edinburgh, Royal Botanic Garden. 1984. (Vol. 1 Part 3 in press.)
- Kew Mag. In preparation.
- Notes Roy. Bot. Gard. Edinburgh. 41 no.3, 1984; 44 no.2, 1987
- Reeve, T. and P. J. B. Woods. A revision of Dendrobium section Oxyglossum. Edinburgh: Royal Botanic Garden. In press.
- Woods, P. J. B. "Dimorphanthera: A genus new to cultivation," The plantsman. June 1984.

Portrait credit:

John Mendum